A message from Mr Wright

Hi everyone!

It's a shorter newsletter this week with it being the bank holiday. Today marks the 75th anniversary of the end of WWII, celebrating what became known as Victory in Europe (VE) day and although the the war cannot be compared with lockdown, there are some similarities, which are comparable. Local communities have come together and found new ways to survive in the face of adversity. People are more grateful and respect things they took for granted and people have learnt things about themselves that they never knew before. Both periods have also brought many challenges, with times of sadness and sorrow and we always remember the ones that we have lost. There are many heroes to thank: the soldiers in WWII, the NHS and Captain Tom, amongst many others. Today, we say thank you to those in the past as well as those in the present and look forward to the return of normality, whatever that may look like on the other side of this pandemic.

Keep safe and well everyone,
#IntTogether

School Heroes

Special mention this week to two very special ladies who have been in every day during lockdown to make sure our school is clean and safe for staff and children.

Thank you Julia and Sharon – you are brilliant!
